

Associate Degree of Criminology and Criminal Justice (ADCJ)
- ADegCrimCJ

- (1) Productively transfer discipline-based competencies in criminology and criminal justice to further learning and professional contexts.
- (2) Critically evaluate multiple sources of evidence in developing their own individual viewpoint.
- (3) Clearly and coherently present ideas and logical arguments in a range of modes that are fit for purpose.
- (4) Act as responsible, ethical citizens based on respect for diversity of cultures and peoples, both locally and globally.
- (5) Apply relevant criminological theories to researching, planning and achieving effective solutions to complex criminological problems.
- (6) Participate both autonomously and collaboratively in informed debates, discussions and activities to produce new ideas, processes and artefacts.

Australian Qualifications Framework

The Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) is a single national, comprehensiv

£ In Semester 3, 2023 this course will be delivered as a Transition (9 week) semester, commencing on 13 November 2023 and concluding on 12 January 2024

IT requirements

For information technology requirements please refer to the minimum computing standards.

Other program requirements

Students must maintain good standing in this program. Please refer to the Student Academic Progress Procedure.

Articulation

The Associate Degree of Criminology and Criminal Justice does not articulate into Bachelor of Laws program.

Credit

Credit may be granted on the basis of completed equivalent study from a recognised institution. In order for credit to be granted, the claim must meet the following specific requirements:

- the course was passed within five years prior to the application (courses up to 10 years old may be considered if evidence is provided that the applicant has been employed in that field)
- the course passed is sufficiently equivalent in objectives, content and weighting to a course prescribed in the Associate Degree of Criminology and Criminal Justice
- where the student has taken out an award from a recognised institution and is claiming credit on the basis of courses completed to meet the requirements of that program, the maximum credit allowable on the basis of such courses will be no greater than eight courses for the Associate Degree of Criminology and Criminal Justice
- credit is not granted on the basis of prior work experience
-

